For resisting an officer he was fined $20 and committed for thirty days without bail, and thirty days for failing to pay the fine, making ninety days in all.

GOODE RECOVERED.—Some time since the goods and chattels of Phil. Medert, proprietor of the Columbia House, were taken under an execution held by Mr. Jacob Lash, and ordered to be sold at public sale. A private watchman was employed by Mr. Lash to look after the property, but notwithstanding this precaution, when the time came for the goods to be sold the discovery was made that a large portion of the stock of liquors had been surreptiously removed. A diligent search was made for the missing goods, and they were found a few days ago in search was made to the messag goods, and they were found a few days ago in the house of a Mr. Levi, a huckster, near West Alexander, whither they had been taken by Medert. We understand that the goods will be sold by Mr. Lash.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.—On returning home from church on Saturday evening last, Rev. Rippey, of the Wesley M. E. Church, discovered a boy named Nolte trying his prentice hands on doors and windows, in an attempt to get inside of the house and rob the pastor. Mr. Rippey had suspected the lad for some days of burglarious intentions, having noticed him about the premises several times under suspicious circumstances, and was therefore not greatly surprised upon discovering him at work. Nolte was taken into custody, but was subsequently discharged with a severe reprimand.

STAMPEDE AT THE CITY PRISON .- Sev-STAMPEDE AT THE CITY PRISON.—Seventeen of the prisoners confined in the shed ycleped the "City Prison" bade the Superintendent "Good bye, John," yesterday morning, and quietly took a walk. The notorious Bill Harris, who ought to have had a ball and chain ornamenting his leg, took the lead, and the others followed him through a window in the rear of the building. On Sunday eight prisoners waltzed out of Uncle John's shanty in the same way. Let 'em all go at once, and save the cost of feeding and lodging them until the next escapade.

A GENTLEMAN riding in a one A GENTLEMAN riding in a one-horse barouche met with a rather awkward predicament, yesterday morning, on 14th street. He was driving up 14th street, as a train came in on the Hempfield road, and the horse, being frightened at the approaching locomotive, backed the vehicle immediately across the track. Fortunately, the engineer aucceeded in stopping the train within a few feet of the barouche, and no damage was done to the man or vehicle.

A Lava Bens Case.—Ellen R. Smith, a "Lava Beds" belle, appeared before Justice Wm. Phillips yesterday, and complained that a Marshall county granger named Abe Hyatt had used abusive language toward her, and insulted her before her little girl. Ellen declared that "she wouldn't have cared at all, if her little daughter hadn't been present," Abe was arrested, and gave bond in the sum of $50, conditioned to be of good behavior for six months. havior for six months.

Movino Trees.—Yesterday afternoon Mr. Morgan L. Ott had the shade trees in front of his residence moved out to the curb, they having been, by the recent widening of the pavement, left almost in the center of the sidewalk. The trees are of pretty good size, but Mr. Bailer, who had the task in hand, said he would guarantee them to live.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.—The stock-holders of the Franklin Insurance Company held their annual meeting yesterday, and re-elected their old Board of Directors, who are as follows: Geo. Adams, M. Reilly, J. N. Vance, John Reid, L. C. Stifel, T. P. Shallcross, John H. Hobbs, James Maxwell, John G. Hoffman.

WILL NOT LECTURE.—Rev. Prickett, pastor of the Zane Street M. E. Church, resterday received a dispatch from President Thompson, of the State University, nforming him that owing to severe indeposition Rev. Thompson would be unisposition Rev. Thompson would be un-ble to lecture at the Zane Street Church o-night. The lecture has therefore been ndefinitely postponed.

NARROW ESCAPE.-Mr. W. H. Cotts, tho works at the machine shops of Sweewho works at the machine shops of Sweeney & Co., had quite a narrow escape last week. He was engaged in drilling all the caught on the drill. A fellow-workman, seeing the situation, got the press stopped in time to save him from a serious if not fatal secident.

P. W. & K.—The laying of ties on the road bed has been completed down to the trestle work at the Cotts property. The rails have been laid down to the Saspension bridge, where the supply ran out. More will be brought down this morning and if the weather permits the track will be laid down to the wharf. It looks now very like a railroad.

YESTERDAY morning a horse attached to a light buggy became frightened on Market street, near Fisher's Foundry, and ran up the street at a terrific speed. At the corner of 14th street the animal

S. T. Hersey, John R. Davenport, A. P.
Paxton, John R. Berger. A SUGGESTION.—We desire to make a simple suggestion to the gentlemen who are superintending the work of completing the new Washington Hall. In brief, it is to this effect: The gallery is reached by stairs which ascend from either side of the vestibule, so near the entrance to the hall that when the doors of the hall are thrown open they shut out all egress from the gallery. Now, a city ordinance, if we mistake not, requires that the doors of all public halls open outwardly. So of all public halls open outwardly: So that, in case of fire, or a panic among the audience, should the doors of the hall be opened wide those in the gallery would be unable to make their escape from the building. Our suggestion is that a recess be made at the entrance to the hall, and the doors be set back far enough to swing free of the gallery stairs.

BILL HARRIS ON HIS MUSCLE,-After the morning session of the police court, yesterday, Officer St. Myers started with the notorious Bill Harris for the city prison. Bill manifested a decided inclination to lag behind, and when urged accelerate his speed struck at the officer. A scuffle ensued, and several blows were exphanced when the urganger was forced A scuffle ensued, and several blows were sexchanged, when the prisoner was forced to an unconditional surrender and jogged along beside his escort as quiet as a lamb. Pate didn't receive a scratch in the melce, but Bill got a bloody head, and he was not hit with a club, either.

BAKER's SPELLING.—During the Legislative contest between Pannell and Sweeney, Mr. Baker was in the habit of spelling the name of one of the candidates thus: "Jimsweeney." After the South Wheeling interview he grew more respectful, spelling it "James W. Sweeney." In this morning's Register he has returned to his old way of spelling. Now, James can't bear to have his name spelled wrong, and we may expect soon to spelled wrong, and we may expect soon to hear of Mr. Baker setting down to rest in the garret of a three-story house.

A MEAN ACT.—One evening last week Mr. Samuel Hedge attended a social party at the residence of Mr. Lewis, near Wellsburg. A valuable horse which he rode he hitched to the fence near by, and during the night some miscreant cut the tail and mane off the animal. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the outrage, who should be severely punished if discovered.

Maz. Applieros, of Charleston, Ka-nawha county, writes that he has formed a military company at Charleston, com-posed of survivors of the Federal and Confederate armies. He asks that one of the Gatling guns now at the armory be reserved for the use of his company, as many of his men have had experience in artillery service.

After electing Mr. Applegate their Treasurer, and Mr. G.S. Simpson their financial Secretary, the miners adjourned, to meet again at the same place to-morrow evening.

A gentleman present at this meeting requests us to state that the publication of Mr. C. B. Murphy's name in the list of "black sheep" was unwarranted, as Mr. Murphy is standing out with the strikers.

A Word For the Animals.—It is hardly right to impose on the good nature of the animals which constitute a team, be they horses or mules. Certainly the strength and endurance of animals is very frequently severely taxed by the loads they draw up our wharf from the coal barges and from the steamboats. We have lately noticed coal carts drawn by two horses not over strong look-Messra, J. Westwood, G. W. Baggs and M. H. Gregg addressed the meeting at Ott's Hall last night.
